HAWAIIAN GAZETTE: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1895.—SEMI-WEEKLY.

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIRST CIRCUIT OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.—In the matter of the Estate of RICHARD P. BRICKERTON, deceased.

The schooner Mary Dodge sailed for Kahului from San Francisco, Dec. 15th.

The bark S. C. Allen arrived in San Francisco Dec. 17th, 13 days from Honolulu.

The U. S. S. Philadelphia arrived at San Francisco from a northern cruise Dec. 21st.

The bark Martha Davis sailed for San Francisco late Saturday with a cargo of sugar.

The steamer Mount Lebanon sailed for Yokohama and Hong Kong Saturday morning.

The Eleu is ready for work again. She hauled over to her old position Sunday morning.

The O. S. S. Alameda arrived in San Francisco Dec. 19th, 6 days and 154 hours from this port.

H. M. S. Wild Swan sailed yesterday morning for a cruise to Fanning Island, Tahiti and Pitcairn islands.

The City of Peking made the trip to San Francisco from this port on Dec. 12th in 5 days, 22 hours and 39 minutes.

Some of the Healani rowers were out for a spin Sunday morning. The boatmen are looking forward to the regatta of May or June.

The Henrietta crew went aboard their vessel yesterday morning to get their clothes. They seemed to take their trouble very lightly.

Edwards, a sailor of the Tam-o'-Shanter, died yesterday morning of heart disease. The funeral took place on shore in the afternoon.

The sealing schooner John Epinger, of San Francisco, cleared for Japanese waters on the 16th. She will put in here on the voyage.

The O. & O. S. S. City of Peking sailed for the Orient shortly before 6 p.m. Saturday. The band was on the wharf and played a farewell to departing passengers.

The missionary schooner R. W. Logan will probably sail for Micronesia at the end of the week. Men have been at work fitting up the rigging for a week or more.

The steamer Hawaii arrived yesterday morning with a cargo of sugar and fifty head of cattle from Maui and Hawaii. While off Maalaea, Maui, experienced very sharp lightning. Smooth voyage up and down.

Lookout Charlie reported the Kinau over a mile ahead of the Claudine and still gaining as she passed Diamond Head. He thinks the Kinau arrived at Lahaina last night and discharged her freight before the Claudine arrived.

The bark Albert has finished discharging her cargo of general merchandise at Brewer's wharf. She is now at the fishmarket wharf, where she will discharge 30,000 bricks, 100 tons moulding sand and 120 pieces large water pipe.

The three-masted schooner Jennie Wand, Christensen master, arrived at Kahului on the 22d, twenty-one days from San Francisco. Her cargo consisted of Christmas goods and fertilizer. She departed three days later with 160 tons of Paia and Hamakua-poko sugar.

The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's steamship line between Portland, Puget Sound, British Columbia, Hawaiian Islands and the Orient, has become permanent. Steamers will touch this port monthly.

The City of Peking, Ward master, arrived last night, 6 days and 7 hours from San Francisco. On account of the Mount Lebanon at the Pacific Mail wharf she was forced to anchor in the stream until that vessel finished taking on coal and hauled out into the stream.

The Kinau arrived from Maui and Hawaii ports yesterday afternoon. At Pepeekeo, on her up trip, she was forced to put freight for that place, Papakou and Onomea on the Kilauea Hou on account of the rough weather. The Kinau will sail on Monday at 5 p.m., instead of Tuesday morning.

Early Sunday morning the Baltimore launch ran into that of the Bennington just off the boat landing. The latter was leaving the wharf and ran across the bow of the former coming in. Before anything could be done, the Bennington boat received a blow that well nigh lifted her out of the water. But little damage was done. Paul Neumann and son were aboard the Bennington launch.
